Defendant.	)

ORDER

This matter is before the Court on Defendant Zachary Maurice Chapman’s motion for jail credit (Doc. 110).<sup>1</sup> Defendant alleges that his “Good Time Data Sheet” reflects an improper forfeiture of good time earned between October 7, 2010 and October 6, 2011. (Id.). Upon consideration, and for the reasons set forth herein, Defendant’s motion is DENIED for lack of jurisdiction.

Though district courts have original jurisdiction over the imposition of a sentence, the Federal Bureau of Prisons (“BOP”) is responsible for computing that sentence and applying appropriate good time credit. Gonzalez v. United States, 959 F.2d 211, 212 (11th Cir. 1992) (citation omitted). Before seeking judicial review of the BOP’s credit calculation, a prisoner must first exhaust administrative remedies. Id. (citing United States v. Lucas, 898 F.2d 1554, 1556 (11th Cir. 1990)); see also United States v. Flanagan, 868 F.2d 1544, 1546 (11th Cir. 1989) (“A federal prisoner dissatisfied with computation of his sentence must pursue the administrative remedy available through the federal prison system before seeking judicial review of his sentence.”).

The record before the Court does not indicate whether Defendant has exhausted his administrative remedies with the BOP. Because exhaustion of administrative remedies is
